Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy outlines why we collect certain information and how we protect your personal privacy within our website. This statement explains our data collection and usage practices for the website located at the URL www.TDJfoundation.org. We urge you to fully understand your rights by reading this Privacy Policy as well as our Terms of Use. TDJfoundation.org reserves the right at any time and without notice to change this Privacy Policy simply by posting such changes on our site. Any such change will be effective immediately upon posting.

To demonstrate our commitment to your privacy, this Privacy Policy will inform you about:

1. The personally identifiable information that is collected through the site;
2. Who collects such information;
3. How such information is used;
4. With whom your information may be shared;
5. Your choices regarding collection, use, and distribution of your information;
6. The security procedures in place to protect against the loss, misuse, or alteration of information under our control;
7. How you can correct any inaccuracies in your information.

What Information We Collect and How We Use That Information: Our registration forms may ask users to provide contact information that may include name, email address, format preference (HTML vs. Text), address, interests, and similar information. We do not collect or store sensitive information from our visitors, such as credit card or social security numbers.

Internet Protocol Address: We collect an Internet Protocol (IP) address from all visitors to our site. An IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer when you use the Internet. We use IP addresses to help diagnose problems with our server, to administer our site, analyze trends, track users' movement, gather broad demographic information for aggregate use in order to improve the site, and deliver customized, personalized content. IP addresses are not linked to personally identifiable information.

Use of "Cookies": Our site may use cookies to enhance your online experience. Cookies are pieces of information that websites transfer to the computer that is browsing that website. They are used for record-keeping purposes and to make web surfing easier by saving your preferences. You can set your browser to refuse cookies, but if you do, some parts of our site may not function properly.

Security: All information provided to TDJfoundation.org is transmitted using SSL (Secure Socket Layer) encryption. SSL is a coding system that allows your browser to automatically encrypt, or scramble, data before sending it to us. Although no data transmission over the Internet is 100% secure, we take steps to protect your information by placing it on a secure part of our site that is only accessible by certain qualified employees of TDJfoundation.org.

Tell-A-Friend: If you choose to use our referral service to tell a friend about our site, we will ask you for your friend's name and email address. TDJfoundation.org will send your friend a one-time email inviting them to visit the site. We store this information only for the purpose of sending this one-time email.

Other Websites: Our site contains links to other websites. Please be aware that when you click on one of these links, you are moving to another website. We encourage you to read the privacy statements of these linked sites as their privacy policies may differ from ours.

Donations: All donations made through our website are nonrefundable. We appreciate your generosity and support in advancing our mission.

Contacting Us: If you have any questions or comments about any of our policies or our website, please contact us at info@tdjfoundation.org.
